

LAMBETH PALACE LIBRARY EVENTS

June - October 2017

Tuesday 27 June, 2.30pm (NB: new date & time. Entry from 2pm)

Annual General Meeting of the Friends of Lambeth Palace Library. Followed by a talk by Clare Wright (Wright & Wright Architects): 'Worth its Weight in Gold': The Lambeth Palace Library New Building. 'A brick is a small, ordinary worthless thing that costs 11 cents, but give me a brick and it becomes worth its weight in gold' (Frank Lloyd Wright).

This meeting, open to Friends of Lambeth Palace Library, will be followed by tea. Friends should book in advance with Juliette Boyd, Lambeth Palace Library, Juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org or telephone 020 7898 1400, not later than Friday 9 June.

Thursday 6 July, 4.15pm (lecture at 5pm)

Annual General Meeting of the Church of England Record Society. Followed by a talk by Professor Arthur Burns (King's College, London): 'A national church tells its story: The English Church Pageant of 1909'. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend are asked to register with juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Wednesday 5 July.

Thursday 28 September, 6pm (admittance not before 5.30pm)

'Remembering the Reformation', launch of a major digital exhibition linked with the Arts and Humanities Research Project. Based at the Universities of Cambridge and York, this project explores how the Reformation in Britain and Europe was remembered, forgotten, contested and reinvented. The exhibition is a collaborative enterprise incorporating some of the many treasures of the Cambridge University Library, York Minster Library and Lambeth Palace Library. The launch will include a display and demonstration of the exhibition website, and will be accompanied by short talks by the four members of the project team, Brian Cummings, Ceri Law, Bronwyn Wallace and Alexandra Walsham.

Some of the Lambeth items that feature in the digital exhibition will also be on display, together with associated material relating to Martin Luther and the Reformation. This event will be followed by a drinks reception. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend are asked to register with juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 22 September.

Thursday 5 October, 5.30pm (admittance not before 5pm)

Professor Lyndal Roper (University of Oxford), 'Martin Luther: Renegade and Prophet'.

This event will be accompanied by a small exhibition of material relating to Martin Luther and the Reformation and will be followed by a drinks reception. A joint event with the Faculty of History, University of Oxford. All are welcome, but numbers will be limited and those wishing to attend are asked to register with juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 29 September.

Future (provisional) date:

Sunday 8 October, 3pm: Concert in the Great Hall. Pre-Reformation polyphonic music from the Peterhouse partbooks (originally intended for use at Canterbury Cathedral), performed by Blue Heron. Details and ticket price to be confirmed; further details will be made available on the Library website and at www.blueheron.org. Those wishing to attend are asked to register their interest with juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org.